“ I am recently retired and found out about Ron's passing from a fellow co-worker. I, too, remember Ron as being a 'quiet' type, but, you get him started in conversation of a favorite TV program or movie, and he would open up like a book! He knew a lot! He would always tell me hi whenever our paths crossed. Prayers are with you now in his passing. C Landis

“ I am still in disbelief Ron has left us. I SO enjoyed working with him these past 20+ years. He consistently had something uplifting and fun to show me on his cellphone; a photo of a cute animal, a funny joke or an act of kindness he spotted online.

His and my birthdays were just a few weeks apart so we always exchanged a birthday cookie, cupcake, candy bar or something small to acknowledge each other growing older and, of course, wiser. At Christmas time Ron would send me a beautiful and yummy cake from Swiss Colony in the mail. He truly was a very special part of mine and many others lives at Ag Leader and will be sooo very missed.

I'm so sorry for your loss. I will be praying for all of you (family and friends). I hope there are many memories of Ron that bring smiles to your faces. I have a treasure trove of them. God bless and be with you all during your time of grief.

“ I worked with Ron for many years at Ag Leader. He was a quiet guy but once you cracked open his shell you could get a smile out of him or maybe even a short story. I will miss him ~ JO
